FOR RENT.

A large and commodious Tobacco Factory in Thomasville N. C. on the N C R R. It is 40 by 80 feet and three stories high—capacity sufficient to work 60 or 80 hands. It is well ventilated. Four shapes, two mills and six box screws, all in good order. Ample room to work more. It is about 75 yards from the depot on white soil. Connected with it is a large smoke house. Cabins, stables and three acres of land. It was built three years ago in the best style to carry on the business on a large scale. Every thing ready to begin any day.

Call on or address at once,

J. K. & M. H. PINNIX.

WHO WANTS A PIANO?

SEVERAL Patrons of the Concord Female College have requested my aid in securing good for their use. This has induced me to make arrangements with some of the best manufacturers, which enable me to furnish instruments of the first class at reduced prices. I can save each purchaser from $10 to $100. Price lists of the manufacturers will be sent to those who desire them, to aid them in making selections.

When selections shall have been made the money can be sent to me at my expense, by the Southern Express, and a Piano will be shipped to the Depot the purchaser may designate. Each Piano sold will be fully warranted. Address me at Statesville, N. C.

FOR GOVERNOR,

JONATHAN WORTH,

OF RANDOLPH.

First of July.

On this day, the first of July next, the time for which many of our subscribers to the Daily have paid, will expire. We trust they will all renew in due time. We are contemplating considerable improvements in the Sentinel, about that time.

In Arreares.

Many of our friends are in arreares to us for the Daily, sent to them before the 1st of April last. We are waiting on them patiently to remit.

The President and the Radicals.

One of the last resorts of the Radicals to bolster up their policy and to secure for it the favorable consideration of the country, is to attempt to make the impression that the President has at last yielded his position, so far as to express satisfaction at and approval of Mr. Howard's programme of reconstruction. We have heretofore denied this rumor, which indeed, for a few days had its effect here upon the Convention now in session.

We are glad to see our denial sustained by at least the semi-official authority of the National Intelligencer. That paper in noticing the attempt of Forney, in a letter from "Occasional," to palm off this rumor upon the public as true, says:

The object of the letter, as is perfectly apparent, is to secure for the Radical plan the prestige of at least a quasi approval of the President. No better evidence is needed of the inherent weakness of their cause, and of the strength of the President's position. When, too, "Occasional" remarks, in reference to Mr. Johnson, that "it is simply absurd to expect anything from him but hostility," and that "to treat with him on any other basis is only to strengthen his power for mischief," he exposes the fact that after having waged a most relentless war against the Chief Magistrate of the nation, and having failed to drive him from the constitutional position upon which he has firmly planted himself, the enemies of the Administration have at length endeavored to open negotiations, under cover of which a masterly retreat might be effected by their disordered forces.

Now, what is the record of the President as proclaimed to the country? As early as the 25th of January last, in a conversation with Senator Dixon, of Connecticut, Andrew Johnson declared that he had strong doubts as to the propriety of further amendments to the Constitution at this time, suggesting however, that if any changes were to be made, they should be embraced in a simple proposition, making in each State the number of qualified voters the basis of representation, and the value of property the basis of direct taxation. Even these modifications he did not deem at all necessary at the present time. At the Cabinet meeting held on the first day of May, according to the published accounts, the accuracy of which has never been called in question, "the President was earnest in his opposition to the report of the Committee on Reconstruction, and declared himself against all conditions precedent to the admission of loyal representatives from the Southern States, in the shape of amendments to the Constitution or the passage of laws. He insisted that under the Constitution no State could be deprived of its equal suffrage in the Senate, and that loyal Senators and Representatives ought to be at once admitted in the respective Houses, as prescribed by law and the Constitution. He was for a rigid adherence to the Constitution as it is, and remarked, that having sustained ourselves under it during a terrible rebellion, he thought that the Government could be restored without a resort to amendments. He remarked, in general terms, that if the organic law is to be changed at all, it should be at a time when all the States and all the people can participate in the alteration."

Andrew Johnson thus stands before the country as opposed to all constitutional amendments at the present time, and to all conditions precedent to the admission of loyal representatives from the Southern States. He is necessarily committed against the so-called Congressional plan, involving as it does, changes in the organic law of the land and servile conditions which must be accepted by the Southern States before they can have a voice in the deliberations of the National Congress. Instead of having exhibited an "appearance of friendship to the plan of Congress," we think it may be safely assumed that the President still abides by the great principles enunciated in the annual message to Congress.

What those great principles are, the Intelligencer reproduces by quoting from the President's message, and then concludes as follows:

We have, in the above extracts, a brief recapitulation of the steps taken by the President to effect a restoration of the rebellious States.—Have the majority in Congress yet proposed to undo any of the measures thus instituted by the Executive? Have they ventured to declare null and void the election of Governors, and of members of Congress, and the proceedings of State Conventions and Legislatures which aided in the ratification of the great amendment abolishing slavery, which repudiated the rebel debt and revoked the ordinances of secession? Have they attempted to arrest the operations of the courts, to re establish the blockade, to close the custom-houses, and the suspend all mail communications? In the case of Texas, for instance, yet in a state of transition from anarchy to law and order, have they made an effort to interfere with the measures of the President to restore that State to all its relations with the Federal Government? Congress has, in fact, acquiesced in everything that has been done, notwithstanding they have charged usurpation upon the Executive, and threatened impeachment time and again. Such being the case, may they not reasonably be asked to complete their portion of the work by consenting that "the plan of restoration shall proceed in conformity with a willingness to cast the disorders of the past into oblivion," and that loyal Senators and loyal Representatives, sent to the nation's Capitol by States and by people who, in good faith, desire to renew their allegance to the United States, shall be allowed to participate in the work of legislation?

FINDING THE PRESIDENT FIRM AND DETERMINED AT ALL HAZARDS TO MAINTAIN INVIOLATE HIS OATH TO SUPPORT THE CONSTITUTION OF THE COUNTRY, it is suggested by "Occasional" that "Congress must, as it can, do the good work without him." The key to these enigmatical words may perhaps be found by reference to the proceedings of Congress under the guidance of their "reconstruction committee." It will be recollected that it was by a "concurrent resolution" that it was declared by both Houses that "no Senator or Representative shall be admitted into either branch of Congress from any of the eleven States which has been declared to be in rebellion, until Congress shall have declared such State entitled to representation." An expedient by which to avoid a veto having thus been discovered, it would now seem from the words of "Occasional" that resort is to be had to "concurrent resolutions." Fearing a veto, and failure to obtain a two-thirds vote, the Constitution is to be evaded in order that the Executive prerogative of the veto, so essential to the interests of liberty, may be rendered a nullity and party interests subserved.

"Tennessee admitted, and then Arkansas," says "Occasional," even Andrew Johnson will find it impossible to find a pretext for faction. The door being opened for these two, the nine others will speedily follow." This is "a consummation most devoutly to be wished;" and as it is one for which the President has earnestly labored, we hope the good work will be achieved. Let the idea of conditions precedent be abandoned. Guaranties are generally demanded by the weaker from the stronger party. To demand that the weaker shall give guaranties to the stronger side is an anomaly that should expose the fallacious reasoning that urges a policy so unwise.

Constitutional Union Clubs.

We observe that in the Northern and Southern States, Constitutional Union Clubs are being formed, for the purpose of organizing a systematic plan of combination and for the diffusion of intelligence and information, throughout the country, and enlightening public sentiment in regard to the issues between President Johnson and the Radicals.

The differences between the President and the Radicals are irreconcilable. He stands where he stood at first, upon the Constitution as it is, without further amendment, until all the States are fairly represented in the Congress. The Radicals persist in demanding certain amendments to the Constitution and a rigid adherence to the "test oath," as a precedent condition of the admission of our members into Congress.—The utter violation of the spirit and intent of the constitution and government—changing radically its character, must be so apparent to the Southern people, that we blush to think that a native born Southron can be found to favor it. There are those among us however, craven enough and weak-kneed enough, to shiver at the thought of being kept out in the cold by the Congress, and who have gone over entirely to the Radical side.

They are busy, as the Radicals are North, in very seriously impressing upon the people of the South, the awful dangers which threaten us, and affirm the absolute certainty of the success of the Radicals in breaking down the President and ruining the South.

On the contrary, we feel confident, that the appeal of the President to the country, if freed from past partizan influences, and if they are supplied with the requisite information, must be successful.

We therefore, urge the formation of Constitutional Union Clubs throughout the entire country, and in every county in this State, for the purpose of spreading information, and affording the President all the moral strength which an endorsement of his policy would furnish.

W. W. Brickell, Esq., of Halifax.

It strikes us, that our cotemporary of the Weldon State, is making rather more ado over the vote of Mr. Brickell against Mr. Clark's resolutions, than is just to Mr. B. We did not approve of that vote, yet it is well known, that a number of gentlemen with Mr. Brickell, voted against Mr. Clark's resolutions, who were really in favor of an early adjournment and decidedly opposed to the course taken by the Convention. Mr. B, no doubt thought that the resolutions were premature, and that a little time should be given to the Convention to consider, if it was so disposed, what it ought or ought not to do; and believing as he did that the Convention ought not to attempt any thing further, he would no doubt have voted for an early adjournment. There are few better representatives than Mr. Brickell. Constantly at his post, prudent and cautious, he does nothing hastily. Hence he voted against Mr. Clark's resolutions, simply with the view of giving a little more time to the body to consider. Without consulting Mr. Brickell, we feel entirely safe, as his other votes will show, that he has no sympathy with the majority who voted against Mr. Clark's resolutions.

The White Basis.

The Convention has discussed at some length the question of white basis. We learn that the discussion has been lengthy and able. Our circumstances prevented our hearing it. The impression is, that the representation in the Senate will be fixed by the taxation on the property basis, and that of the House by population.

"MANY VOTERS" in the Weldon State suggest the names of M. L. Wiggins, for the Senate, and Dr. H. Joyner and A. H. Davis, for the Commons, to represent Halifax county in the next Legislature. These gentlemen have represented that county for several years, and are excellent representatives. We presume it would be useless for opposition to that ticket to be gotten up.

A lump of gold, taken from the North Carolina gold mines, weighing five pounds, is on exhibition at Statesville, N. C. It is the largest lump found in the State since 1828.

Lieutenant Governor.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 6, 1866.

EDITOR OF DEMOCRAT:—The Raleigh Sentinel persists in the statement (in reply to your article) that the amendment to the Constitution of the State, which has passed the Convention now in session here, creating the office of Lieut. Governor, provides that the incumbent shall receive as compensation, only the per diem of the Speaker of the Senate. There is no provision of the sort; the amendment simply leaves the compensation to be fixed by law. The intention is, doubtless, to leave that to the Legislature; and the politicians, for whose benefit the office is created, will bring the salary very nearly up to that of the Governor.

The office will be an entire sinecure. The incumbent will have no duty to perform save to act as Speaker of the Senate, and as Governor in case of a vacancy. Every duty which can possibly devolve on a Lieutenant Governor was amply provided for in our present Constitution, and no good reason has been assigned in debate for the addition of this utterly useless and unnecessary office, save that other States have done the like.

The Convention now in session, Mr. Editor, although called for a special purpose only, which purpose it fulfilled at its last session, has taken the whole Constitution under its charge, and is discussing it section by section, making even verbal amendments, and consuming the time and money of the people in considering them.

E.

The Sentinel simply persisted in stating what it understood to be the truth in the case. We learned that those who favored the measure, designed to confine the pay of Lieut. Governor to the amount of duty actually performed by him. As to what the politicians designed, we know nothing. We believe the office to be necessary and preferred it to our present arrangement, but if the office is designed to be a sinecure, or to attach to it a salary, we should oppose it.—EDS. SENTINEL.

Rev. Solomon Pool.

As the relations of this gentleman with the University have been alluded to by the public press, it is but simple justice to him, that we should state the facts which have just come to our knowledge.

He has for several years filled with entire acceptability, the position of Adjunct Professor of Mathematics. A graduate of the University and devoted to its interests, he was unwilling to sever his connection with the institution, when he saw it under severe pecuniary difficulties, although his services might be dispensed with. He therefore determined to accept of the position of U. S. assessor when tendered to him, relinquished his claim for salary as soon as he entered upon his new position, determining to apply to the Trustees for a furlough, which had been granted to others under similar circumstances, as soon as the Board met. At the late meeting of the Board, an indefinite furlough was granted him. Mr. P. therefore, receives no pay as Professor, but places himself in a position to return to his Chair, when his services are needed. In this course, Mr. P. has acted conscientiously and in accordance with the advice of friends and his feelings of attachment to the institution.

The Hillsboro Recorder.

The following from that old veteran of the press, Dennis Heartt, Esq., of Hillsboro, has the ring of the true metal:

In compliance with the wishes of many friends, and not unwillingly, we run up in this number of the Recorder the name of JONATHAN WORTH as our candidate for Governor at the approaching election. We believe him to be the choice of the people of Orange as well as the people of the whole State. His long experience in public affairs, his personal integrity, his love of justice, his financial ability, and last but not least, his even and smooth temper, eminently qualify him for the high place which he fills with so much satisfaction to the great body of the people of North Carolina.

We do not know that there will be any opposition, though we hear something said of opposition with a repudiating platform.

We see no reason why public journals should not now discuss the subject of repudiation.—The sooner and the more thoroughly it is discussed the better the people will understand it. The people should not allow the subject, or those who advocate it, to take possession of them too suddenly or violently.

Our people are in debt; pay day will take the roof from over many a debtor's head.—What can save those in debt from the distress that awaits them? Nothing, it may be said, but repudiation.

But can we repudiate? That is the question. Secession might have saved us from the domination of the abolition faction, but we could not secede. Repudiation would take our property from under the hammer, but we cannot repudiate. The same Constitution which forbids our seceding forbids repudiating. There can be no misunderstanding the Constitution on this question. The tenth section of the Constitution of the United States expressly declares that "no State shall pass any law imparing the obligation of contracts." The Federal Courts will not be closed. We might repudiate and shut out State Courts against the collection of all debts, public and private; but what would avail when we could be sued and judgment rendered against us in the Federal Courts?

When men attempt to avoid the payment of just debts they should be sure of success; a failure entails nothing but disgrace. How could members elected to the Legislature take an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and then vote for an act of repudiation?

We are hemmed in between two great evils; how we shall be extricated from them will require wise men to answer.—Hillsboro' Recorder.

SUPREME COURT.—On Tuesday last, the Court appointed S. F. Phillips, Esq., of Orange, reporter of decisions of the Supreme Court. This is a most capital appointment, and one we judge, which will give entire satisfaction to the profession.

CORRECTION.—Among the list of gentlemen who received the degree of Master of Arts at the University, as published on yesterday, appears the name of J. H. Colton, Fayetteville.—It should have been written, Rev. James H. Colton, formerly of Fayetteville.

The Postmaster General has ordered daily mail service on the Norfolk and Petersburg rail road.

STATE CONVENTION.

ADJOURNED SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, June 13th. 1866.

The session was opened with prayer by Rev. J. M. Atkinson.

On motion of Mr. Brooks, the ordinance concerning widows who have qualified as executrixes of the wills of their husbands, was taken up and passed the second and third readings, under a suspension of the rules. (The ordinance provides that widows who have qualified as executrixes of the wills of their husbands admitted to probate since the 1st of Jan. 1862, and before the 1st of May 1865, may enter her dissent to the will, according to the forms for dissent hitherto in force, and she shall have the same right of dower as if her husband died intestate. But no widow can avail herself of the benefits of the ordinance unless she enters her dissent within six months from its passage, nor in any case if the property of the husband has been sold and proceeds divided between the devisees or heirs at law.

Mr. Moore, of Wake, introduced an amendment to the Constitution in regard to the manner of appointing Magistrates, which on his motion was ordered to be printed.

The ordinance for the relief of the people who have suffered losses by the war was reported back, and the committee discharged from its further consideration.

Mr. Moore, of Chatham, introduced a resolution for adjournment to 1st of Jan. 1867, and a resolution submitting certain ordinances to the people for ratification or rejection at the next August election, both of which lie over under the rules.

Mr. Mebane introduced an ordinance for the benefit of orphan children, and

Mr. Spencer of Hyde, an ordinance to amend the charter of the Fairfield Canal Company, each of which passed the first reading, and the latter was referred to the Committee on Corporations.

The resolution to adjourn sine die on Monday next at 6 o'clock, was taken up on the motion of Mr. Odom.

Mr. McDonald, of Moore, offered to amend by providing that the Convention may be called together if necessary, at any time before the first day of January next, at the instance of Hon. Bedford Brown, Lewis Thompson, Esq., and Gen. Alfred Dockery.

Mr. McDonald defended his amendment at some length, but before the conclusion of his remarks,

The hour of 10 o'clock arrived and Mr. Caldwell, of Burke called for the special order of the day, (the amendment to the Constitution on the basis of representation) and the same was taken up on a record of the yeas and nays, which resulted yeas 58, nays 41.

Mr. Conigland proceeded to the discussion of the question in opposition to the amendment of Mr. Logan. He argued that this amendment was wrong in principle, and he read from census statistics to show that it would be unjust and illiberal to the tax paying portions of the State. Mr. Conigland spoke at some length and ably, in defence of a mixed basis.

Mr. Boyden followed on the same side, declaring himself in favor of a system of checks and balances in the organization of government.—He was in favor of having the representation in the Senate based on taxation, and that of the House of Commons on white population.

Mr. Phillips offered an amendment to the amendment of Mr. Logan, nearly similar in its provisions to the report of the committee to revise the Constitution, except that it provides for representation in the House of Commons on the basis of whites, instead of the whole population.

Mr. Moore, of Wake, addressed the Convention in an able argument in defense of the general proposition in a government like ours. He cited the opinions of able statesmen on the subject, especially of Mr. Webster, in support of the propriety and conservatism of giving property representation in the law making body.

Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, alluded to the proposed compromise, which bases representation in the Senate on taxation and in the House of Commons on population, but he was opposed to postponing the operation of the compromise to 1872, he thought it but fair that the apportionment should be made, and the amendment take effect at the elections of the present year.

Mr. Satterthwaite was gratified at the prospect of compromising the vexed question of the basis, and was prepared to meet the advocates of the white basis on a common platform and settle the matter, he hoped, to the satisfaction of all.

He thought there would be some difficulty in carrying into effect immediately, the provisions of the amendment—but he was willing to yield in that.

Messrs. Settle, Odum, Rumley and others expressed concurrence in the hope that the subject was approaching an amicable adjustment.

Mr. Love, of Jackson, said he had a proposition which he thought would meet the general approbation, as a form of compromise of the basis, which was read for information.

Mr. Dick advocated the compromise proposed in the amendment of Mr. Phillips, and hoped that the spirit of conciliation would prevail.

Mr. Bynum thought that a subject of such grave importance as that embraced in the amendments, ought to be properly considered and put in proper shape by a committee. He therefore, moved to refer the amendments to a select committee of seven, one from each Congressional district.

Mr. Phillips opposed the reference and thought it better to take the vote on principle at this time.

The subject was further discussed by Messrs. Starbuck, Bynum, Howard and others.

There seemed to be difficulty in adjusting the plan to immediate working, on account of the fact that the amendment to the Constitution inaugurating the new apportionment, must be ratified by the people, before it can take effect.

Mr. Moore, of Wake, suggested as a compromise, that the election of the members of the General Assembly may be postponed until after the people shall have an opportunity to vote on the Constitution, in August.

The question of reference to a select committee was put and was not agreed to.

Then on the adoption of Phillips's substitute for Mr. Logan's amendment.

Mr. Love, of Jackson, asked a division of the question, so as to vote first on striking out, and the Convention refused to divide.

The substitute of Mr. Phillips was then adopted the yeas and nays being ordered on his motion: yeas 70; nays 31.

AYES.—Messrs. Alexander, Allen, Baines, Barrow, Berry, Boyden, Brickell, Brown, Brooks, Burgin, Buxton, Conigland, Dockery, Eaton, Faircloth, Ferebee, Foy, Gilliam, Godwin, Grissom, Hodge, Howard, Jackson, Jarvis, Joyce, Joyner, King, Lash, Lyon, McCauley, McCorkle, McKoy, of Sampson, McKay, of Harnett, McGehee, Nat. McLean, McLaughlin, McRae, Mebane, Moore, of Wake, Murphy, Norfleet, Odom, Patterson, Pearsall, Perkins, Person, Phillips, Polk, Richardson, Rumley, Russell, Rush, Satterthwaite, Settle, Simmons, Sloan, Smith, of Anson, Spencer of Hyde, Spencer, of Montgomery, Starbuck, Stephenson, Thompson, Walkup, Ward, Warren, Willey, Williams, Winburne, Winston, Wright.—70.

NAYS.—Messrs. Baker, Bingham, Bradley, Bryan, Bynum, Caldwell, of Burke, Caldwell, of Guilford, Dick, Dickey, Ellis, Faulkner, Gahagan, Garland, Garrett, Harris, of Guilford, Harris, of Rutherford, Harrison, Haynes, Henry, Jones, of Davidson, Jones, of Henderson, Jones, of Rowan, Logan, Love, of Jackson, McDonald, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, Moore, of Chatham, Smith, of Johnston, Smith, of Wilkes, Stewart and Swan.—31.

Mr. Bynum then offered as a substitute to the amendment, the original ordinance reported by the Committee on the basis, but before any action was taken.

The hour of three arrived and the Convention adjourned.

Final Report of the Reconstruction Committee.

The Reconstruction Committee have laid before Congress their final report, which opposes the admission of any representatives from the States lately in rebellion, leaving the case of Tennessee to be settled by Congress, if it be claimed that she is entitled to separate consideration. As might have been expected from a committee the majority of which from the commencement have shown themselves the creatures of Thaddeus Stevens, obedient to his dictation and wholly subservient to the will of the Radical faction. Their action at the close of their labors is entirely consistent with their antecedent record. It is in opposition to the policy of the President and to the welfare of the Republic, and therefore it has fulfilled the intention of the demagogues by whose contrivance the committee were appointed. The appointment was made for the purpose of facilitating the operations of the disunionists in Congress, and to that effect the mission has been performed.

Not even the exacting ringleader of the conspirators, the faction driver, whose whip lashes his adherents into discipline, and whose arrogance and violence awe the whole tribe of Radicals into submission, can find fault with the service of the tools that he has employed to work out his programme. They have done their duty to him in proportion as they have been faithless to the interests of their country.

Is there not power enough in the will of the people, and in the influences of the Executive office, to defeat the intrigues of these reckless fanatics? The President has asserted that he regards the admission of the South to representation in Congress as essential to the welfare and safety of the Republic, and he has committed himself to the opinion that the denial of those rights of representation is in violation of the principles of our form of government. The duties of his office embrace an obligation to protect all the States in the enjoyment of republicanism; and if his arguments, his entreaties his appeals to reason and patriotism are of no avail, it behooves him to adopt more decisive measures to rescue the political system from the disturbing elements that not only impede its action but threaten its existence.

That the Southern people are in a condition and a proper mood to exercise the functions of American citizenship with profit to the general interests has been proven by the very evidence brought before the Committee, including the testimony of some of the most prominent men of the South, of irreproachable character and a high order of intelligence. Citizens of the North, soldiers of rank and reputation, who served the Federal cause in the late war, and who have had opportunities to study the temper of the Southern populations, have also borne witness to the propriety and expediency of restoring the conquered people to all their rights and privileges within the national household.—To assert that there is any danger in the rehabilitation of the South is to assert that to which common sense gives the emphatic lie. To pretend that such rehabilitation would not be beneficial to the industrial, social and political interests of the Republic is an insult to the intelligence of the people. Our business communities, by even their short experience since the cessation of hostilities, can attest that the paralysis of Southern energies and the inactivity of Southern resources consequent upon the policy of the Radicals, have been most detrimental to the common weal. The rich soil of the South remains comparatively unproductive, and the channels of remunerative trade are blocked up at the crisis when the country needs the development of all its resources to assist in recuperation from the effects of civil strife. The capital of the North shrinks from investment in Southern ventures, and the labor of the South is baffled by the general sense of uncertainty and persecution. Why should this unnatural condition of affairs be tolerated when the President knows and the people know that it is owing simply to the ambition and fanaticism of a faction that represents a minority, so far as popular sentiment is concerned, and that is only powerful through its legislative usurpations?—The emergency demand energetic and decisive action on the part of the Chief Magistrate.—There are friends of tools of the opposition in the Cabinet; let them be dismissed, and their places given to men who indorse and will support the Executive policy; and, since Thaddeus Stevens himself confesses that the Executive pardon cancels the record of offense in the eyes of the law let a general amnesty be proclainied.—Two steps will then have been taken toward the triumph of the President's policy of reconstruction, and the next Congress, if constructed in accordance with that policy, and in obedience to the suffrages of the people, North and South, will do the rest.—New York News.

Insanity among the Freedmen.

Two facts furnished by the census completely answers all the ranting about the horrors of slavery with which the apostles of emancipation used to stun the public ear. The first was that the slaves of the Southern States reproduced more rapidly than any people on the earth, and far more rapidly than their own race, either North, or South, not slaves. The second was that there were fewer insane among them than among any other people of equal numbers on the globe. All writers upon social subjects agree that these are infallible tests of the well-being of races and classes. That the results were directly and solely attributable to slavery is shown by the fact that since the negroes of the South have been deprived of the guardianship and care of masters they have not only ceased to increase, but have, by the estimates of the best informed, diminished in number at least twenty-five per cent., although the Government has been spending millions upon millions in providing for them. And now insanity, almost unknown among them as slaves, is becoming fearfully prevalent among them as freedmen. We are informed that within the last month some fifteen or sixteen such unfortunates have been lodged in prison in this city. In former times that number would hardly have been found in five years. Want, anxiety, disease and all the troop of evils that beset mankind now dog the heels of the poor creatures, driving them into the grave, the lunatic asylums, the jails and penitentiaries, by the wholesale. We have seen what were the fruits of the system that has been destroyed; we have yet to see and realize fully the results of the one that has been substituted. Crime, sickness, starvation, death, the mad-house and the prison-cell are the first-fruits. What are to follow?—Rich. Whig.

THE SENTINEL.

Thursday, June 14, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

Mr. Gee's Trial.

The examination of Capt. Goodman closed on yesterday. Much of it we understand was documentary and very clear and strong for the defence. At the close of the testimony Col. D. P. Holland, senior counsel for the accused, then said:—

And now we close the case in behalf of the defence, and here gentlemen, I desire, as counsel, to state that the evidence of the witness who has just been on the stand, and who has testified so much from official documents and papers, besides his verbal testimony, would necessarily require us to ask a further adjournment to complete the argument that we have already prepared to address to this court, but which we could no complete without incorporating the testimony of this witness, because we could not, of cours, make an argument upon evidence that was not at that time before the Court.

That argument is ready, except that testimony. We have diligently and faithfully carried out that which we stated to the Commission we would attempt. To get the argument here, we would have to ask the commission for a futher delay to bring in the testimony of Captain Goodman to complete it.

And while that is the case, and would necessarily delay this Commission, yet we do not think gentlemen, that it is necessary for us to ask for further time. Nor do we think it would be proper to ask for further time from this Commission to complete his argument, and bring it before them. And we think it would be improper to bring befce the Commission an incomplete argument, and therefore we say that we will submit this case without argument, if the Judge Advocate will do likewise. We cannot present to this Commission a stronger argument of the innocence of the accused than the record of the evidence before you. If that evidence is not an argument, there is no necessity for us to make any! If the Judge Advocate will agree to this opposition, we submit the cause of the accused into your hands, trusting in God and your Honors, that his innocence, which we have shown here from the record, may by you be declad.

The Judge Advocate replied that considering the offer by the defence he did not think his duty required him to delay the case by asking a further adjournment. The evidence is before the Court and the case is submitted without argument.

The proceedings will go up to the War Department or the President for revision, and consequently some time will elapse before a final rendering of the verdict.

In the meantime the health of Major Gee, arising from his long confinement, requires that he should be allowed greater liberty. Under the circumstances, it appears to us it should be granted.

NEW ADVERTISEMETS.—Col. Bingham opens the next session of his school on the 27th of July next. It is a good school.

The veteran bookseller, H. D. Turner, Esq., retires from the trade and Messrs. Branson & Farrar take his stock and stand. Success to them.

SUPREME COURT.—The session of this Court, now in progress, is drawing a large number of legal gentlemen to this City.

CITY POST OFFICE.—A temporary and not very sightly building has been erected by the government for the City Post Office, on the corner of the lot formerly occupied by the Lawrence Hotel. The government bought this lot some time before the war, and designed erecting there a fine substantial building for the U. S. Circuit Court and the Post Office. The building we hope to see erected before many years.—We presume our worthy Postmaster will soon remove to his new quarters.

THE LIMB FACTORY.—We have heretofore omitted to state, that the Jewett Company, which was the successful competitor for the contract to furnish limbs to our disabled soldiers, have established a brash factory in this city and have a number of workmen engaged in the manufacture of artificial limbs. A number have already been supplied, all measures are being received daily. The factory is located in the bayonet factory in the Northern part of the city.

COLORED SCHOOLS.—We observe that several colored schools have recently been established in this City, by colored teachers who are competent, and who were born and raised among us. Their charges are modest and we observe that the schools are thronged. We think our own colored men and women who are competent to teach should be encouraged. We hope by this process, that the occupation of the "school marms" can soon be dispensed with. Our own people of color who have been raised up among us, we know, but we do not know the "school marms."

PANORAMA.—Few cities furnish so many beautiful views from the surrounding eminences that begirt it, as Raigh. We took a most enchanting view of the western part of the city a few evenings ago, from the bridge which spans the N. C. Railroad near the mansion of W. M. Boylan, Esq. It is more interesting sight than we frequently see in the pictures.—If Mr. Watson wants a pretty picture, we advise him to transfer his machine to that point some pleasant evening.

ICE CREAM SALOON.—Our young friend Theo. Fentress, at the Store of Mr. Franklin's, has opened an Ice Cream Soon. We have seldom seen finer. It is Ice cream, sure.

George ought to be polar: he took the oath both ways with such impartiality during the late war.

General News.

CASE OF MR. DAVIS.—The reports from Washington bring us no thing definite concerning the release of Mr. Davis, save that there is much excitement there on the subject, and that his early release is expected. A political game seems to be playing in connection with it; some wishing the release to come in the form of bail from the Judges, in order that the Radicals may be silenced, while the latter are said to desire the President to parole him, that they may have something to clamor over at the coming elections. Greely seems to be above the petty game, and to be laboring for his release on bail.—Richmond Enquirer.

LOSS BY FIRE.—The dwelling house of James S. Snow, Esq., Sheriff of Halifax county, was consumed by fire on Thursday night last, together with all his furniture and other valuables. Sheriff Snow has the sympathies of our people for the losses which he has sustained, which bears more heavily upon him on account of the stringency of the times and the losses he has sustained by the war. There is no doubt we learn but that the fire was the work of an incendiary.—Weldon State.

SMALL POX IN NORTHAMPTON CO. JAIL.—We learn from a member of the Bar that some cases of small pox have occurred among the culprits confined in Northampton jail. During the June term of Northampton County Court the Sheriff was ordered to bring in one of the culprits a freedman for trial. The Sheriff came into the court and reported that the prisoner was afflicted with the small pox. The court sent in a physician to examine into the matter, who corroborated the statement of the Sheriff. The court after establishing a Quarantine, and making provisions for the prisoner, adjourned instanter.—Weldon State.

A CURIOSITY IN THE CHICKEN LINE.—We have been sent by Mr. W. A. Pearson, of Halifax county, a rather queer specimen of the feathered tribe. It is a young chichen with four perfect legs and feet. It lived five days and never partook of any food after which it was hatched. This is a freak of nature which we have never seen exhibited before, and deserves to be chronicled.—Weldon State.

DEAD.—Thomas Dawson, a well known citizen of Lenoir county, N. C., died a few days since, at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Whitfield, near Mosely Hall. He had completed his eighty-second year.

HEAVY RAIN AND FRESHET.—The whole region of country round about Salem, N. C., was visited with a heavy rain a few days ago, causing the water-course to overflow the low lands, and doing considerable damage to the grass and grain crops.

COMMERCE IN THE SOUTH.—A correspondent writing to the Carolinian says:

"Charleston is destined to become a large commercial port. The produce of the far west will seek this outlet in preference to more northern cities. The Cincinnatti and Charleston Railroad is a settled fact, and the South Carolina Railroad, as a branch of that line, should be using all its endeavors to recuperate Charleston."

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—The Rev. T. G. Lowe will preach the funeral sermon of John Campbell, Esq., deceased, in Weldon, on Sunday, the 17th inst., at 11 o'clock A. M.

FIRE.—The large warehouse of the Messrs. Cobb, at Elizabeth City, N. C., was destroyed by fire Saturday morning. The contents also. Insured at Norfolk.

A rumor is circulating in Germany that, in case of a war there, Gen'l Mc Clellan, who at present sojourns at Dresden, will be appointed Commander in Chief of the Saxon army.

DEATH OF CAPT. MILLER.—Capt. Benjamin T. Miller, late of the Confederate army, died last week near Tarboro', N. C., in the 45th. year of his age.

The Danville Register says that the heavy rains which fell Friday night and Saturday did severe damage to the crops on the low grounds.

It is proposed in Norfolk to send to the Paris exhibition a model of the "Merrimack" as a specimen of the work of Southern genius.

While the rite of confirmation was being administered by Bishop Quintard, in the Episcopal Church, at Jackson Tenn., the other night, a large and costly chandelier fell to the floor, and was shattered into fragments. Nobody happened to be under it, and nobody was hurt.

A woman and a man of bad reputation—the one being a member of the frail sisterhood, and the other of the Tennessee Senate—were thrown from a buggy in Paducah the other day. Somebody thrashed the man handsomely as soon as he touched the ground, and turned him over to the police.

Ex-President Fillmore and his wife were lately at Madrid. The latter had derived great advantage from the journey through Spain. Many attentions were offered them, which Mr. Fillmore felt bound to decline. They returne to the States in August.

Another "Plan" to Keep the Southern States Unrepresented.

To carry into effect the constitutional amendment as it passed the Senate, it is now proposed to frame a concurrent resolution binding each House not to admit any representative from any one of the excluded States, until the State shall formally adopt the terms of the proposed amendment. The purpose would be vetoed. It is necessary, therefore, to put it in the same form by which the republican caucus resolution was passed at the opening of the session, and thus evade the veto. No Senator or Representative from a seceded State, even if prepared to take the iron-clad oath, can, therefore, be admitted to a seat, even after the constitutional amendment shall have received the ratification of twenty seven States, unless his State shall have accepted the term as a condition precedent to its representation, either in whole or in part. Senator Johnson, in his able speech against the proposed amendment, declared that no Southern State would ratify it.

WASHINGTON, June 12.

The inquiries made by Gen. Meade are as yet incomplete, but so far as they have gone, they do not confirm the report that the Canadian or British forces came across the boundary line, or that any of the Fenians have been killed by them or that prisoners were captured by them on the American side of the frontier.

Reconstruction—The Proposed Amendment.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The joint resolution as amended in the Senate, and sent back to the House for concurrence in the amendments, is as follows:

ARTICLE—Section 1.—All persons born, naturalized in the U. States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the U. S., and of the States wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privilege or immunities of citizens of the United States, nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without the process of law, or deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Section 2.—Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed; but whenever the right to vote at any election for election of President or Vice President and United States representatives in Congress, executive or judicial officers, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridging, except for participating in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Section 3. No person shall be a Senator or representative in Congress or elector of President or Vice President, or hold an office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress or as an officer of the U. S., or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies therief; but Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House remove such disability.

Section 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for the payment of pensions and bounties for service in suppressing insurrection or rebellion shall not be questioned; but neither the United States or any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States; or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave, but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

General Grant and the Fenians.

The Fenians seem to be excited against the President because of his proclamation against them and the arrest by his order, of some of their leaders. General Grant is acting in concert with him, and will doubtless come in for his share of Fenian censure. The Chicago Tribune says that the Commander in chief, on a recent visit to Chicago, expressed himself pointedly on the subject of the invasion of Canada, saying that "this thing had gone far enough, and that the Government should at once arrest the leaders of the movement in mercy to their misguided followers." The Tribune says: "He does not wish the neutrality laws to be broken nor the Irish people led into a net from which it will be difficult to extricate themselves. He thinks this business should be stopped here summarily; that the Government owes it to its own honor to enforce the neutrality laws in regard to a people with whom we are at peace; that if the United States wishes to go to war with Great Britain, it can do so under the same flag under which the rebellion was suppressed, and then the Fenians would have all the chance they want. Furthermore, that the leaders may know they cannot succeed, and their only hope is that they may embroil this country in a war with England, a hope which makes them doubly guilty. He looks upon the attempt to capture Canada, without a properly appointed army and commissariat, reserves, &c., as simply preposterous."

Have we a National Disease?

S. D. Wallace Esq. President of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad [Aug 30, 1865] says: "It has been said that Dyspepsia is our national disease. However this may be, it caused me, long and severe sufferings. Providentially a friend furnished me with a few boxes of the HEPATIC PILLS, and the use of them has perfected a cure. In my family they have been used frequently with eminent success. Among my acquaintances, many cases originating from diseased liver, have been relieved and cured by them. I regard them as an invaluable medicine, and take pleasure in forwarding this voluntary tribute."

For sale by the Druggists. Directions accompany each box. Sent to any part of the United States for $3 per dozen. Address,

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disenchantant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspepic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. Maggiel, 43 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

PROSPECTUS.

BALTIMORE EPISCOPAL METHODIST.

The Baltimore Episcopal Methodist will be issued in this city the first of next month. Its publication will be under the mangement of the Rev. JOHN POISAL. DR. THOMAS E. BOND and REV. S. S. ROSZEL, Editors. The "Episcopal Methodist," of Richmond, Virginia, having been transferred to Baltimore, Bishop Doggett and Rev. J. E. Edwards will continue their services as Editorial correspondents. Rev. C. K. Marshall, D. D., General Agent. The best talent of the Southern Church will be employed upon its columns. The publisher has the pleasure to announce that contributions may be expected from Bishop Pierce of Georgia, Bishop Marvin of Texas, Bishop McTyeir of Alabama, Bishop Wightman of South Carolina, Dr. Summers of Nashville, Dr. Marshall of Mississippi, Dr. Hnston of Kentucky, and others.

The contributions of some of the most eminent men of other denominations will also enrich its columns: Rev. Dr. Palmer of New Orleans, Dr. Burgett, of Mobile, Dr. Bullock of Baltimore, Prof. McGuffy of the University of Virginia, Rev. Peyton Harrison, and others.

It is designed to make the paper the great organ of the Epi-copal Methodist Church, yet in no partizan sense will it be denominational. The General Conference which recently met at New Orleans, and the whole people of the South concede to Baltimore a name and prestige as the proper place for its publication. No pains or expense will be spared to make it a first-class Journal and a welcome visiter to every Christian household. The names of the gentlemen who will have the Editorial management of the paper, and the corps of able coadjutors associated with them are the best pledge to its patrons, that they will find the Episcopal Methodist in its spirit and teaching, the advocate of conservative principles and a bulwark of defense against the dangerous tendencies of the times.

We deem it proper to assure our friends, that the salutary measures of reform, which were adopted by the late General Conference, meet the cordial approval of the conductors of this paper. As it will represent every State and Conference in the South, it will afford the best advertising medium in all our business and social relations. It invites a renewal in a stronger form of those commercial and fraternal ties which must bind Baltimore and the South more closely together.

This important organ of communication between our respective communities, will be published regularly once a week, on fine paper, large type and quarto size at $4.00 per annum, or $2.00 for six months, invariably in advance.

Office of publication, 332 W. Baltimore Street, Selby & Dulancy, where subscriptions and advertisements may be left; also at the Banking House of Wm. T. Smithson & Co., 2224 Baltimore St. Wm. Devries & Co., 312 Baltimore St.; J. W. Bruff & Co., 245 Baltimore St.; Hopkins, Harden & Kemp, 336 Baltimore St.; Charles Hoffman, 317 W. Baltimore St.; Banking House, Thomas & Co., 176 W. Baltimore St.; Drug Store, Dr. J. L. Gibbons, corner Eutaw and M. H. Waite's Book Store, 138 Baltimore St. All the members of the Southern General Conference are authorized Agents. The preachers of the several annual conferences and clergymen generally, are requested to act as agents for this paper.

WHITE SULPHUR AND CHALYBEATE SPRINGS.

THE UNDERSIGNED has the satisfaction of announcing to the public, that he has leased these celebrated Springs, and that they will be opened for the reception of visitors on the first day of June ensuing.

His arrangements are of that complete and extensive character, that he will be able to accommodate a large number of guests and to offer greater attractions than usual to those who may visit

This pleasant and healthful resort,

No trouble or expense will be spared to render his patrons comfortable and satisfied.

The grounds are elegantly laid off, and the buildings are enlarged and improved.

He will have ICE, MILK, VEGETABLES and all the substantials and delicacies of the table in profusion.

An ICE CREAM SALOON and SODA FOUNTAIN will be attached to the establishment, where those refreshments, as well as CONFECTIONERY, Fruits &c can be always obtained.

The bar will be supplied with the finest liquors, and a billiard saloon and bowling alley, for amusement and exercise, be at the disposal of visitors.

The Medicinal Properties

Of the Sulphur water have been amply tested during many years by a large number of visitors, and its best finest results strikingly displayed in the cure or relief of

And the Spring has been discovered in the vicinity of the establishment, an accurate scientific analysis of which (given below) proves that it is a valuable Chalybeate. It is a mild and gentle tonic, and in the opinion of the physicians who have examined it, and witnessed its effects in some cases during several seasons just passed, beneficial in Atonic Dyspepsia Chlorosis, Uterine Nervous and Neuralgic Affections connected with Debility; and of especial service to persons living in malarious regions of country, whose blood has been robbed of its normal proportion of iron by repeated attacks of malarial fevers.

Persons travelling on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad will always find a line of stages under the management of Mr. Granger, ready for their accommodation at Warrenton Depot. There will be a daily mail from Warrenton to the Springs.

WE have received the manufacture of Cotton Gins in this city, and will be prepared to fill orders by 1st June next. As we shall not, as heretofore, represented by traveling agents, those wishing our Gins, will confer a favor by sending in their orders at an early day. As owing to the demand we shall be unable to keep a stock in the hands of our local agents, as it was our practice before the war. All business transactions being now reduced to cash, our sales will be made on the basis of read pay.

Our Gins are too well known to require any special notice or commendation; we believe they are unrivaled in the chief points of excellence which go to make up a superior machine, namely Speed light draught and good sample.

Our DOUBLE CYLINDER GINS will be found superior to the single cylinder, when parties have steam or good water power, I give them the necessary speed. In all cases where this can be done, we recommend them in preference to the single cylinder. If, however, indifferent or sufficient power is used, they will not do as well as the single Gin.

Messrs. DeROSSET & CO. Wilmington, N. C., are our general agents for the sale of North Carolina.
